

Admission Procedure for International Students

All international students are required to adhere to the regulations of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. University procedures and regulations for non-U.S. citizens must also comply with federal law; therefore, admission requirements for international students, including permanent residents, differ from those for United States citizens. An evaluation of any foreign credentials showing equivalency to the educational system of the United States. All foreign credentials must be evaluated by a credential service that is a member of the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES), AACRAO International Education Services (prior to 2016), or a member of the Association of International Credential Evaluators (AICE), for equivalency to college or university transcripts in the U.S. All credentials submitted to the university are retained by the university.

Admission of an international student to the university requires the following documents. The university will issue an I-20 upon receipt of:

1. A non-refundable application fee of $150.00 (USD) and a $275.00 (USD) fee for the evaluation of credentials, transcripts, and other overseas documents.
2. A completed application for admission.
3. Official transcript(s) in English translation sufficient to establish the completion of the equivalent a bachelor's degree; such transcript must be mailed to the university from the institutions where the coursework was completed. If the official transcript is not available in English, contact the Admissions Coordinator for further assistance.
4. An evaluation of any foreign credentials showing equivalency to the educational system of the United States. All foreign credentials must be evaluated by a credential service that is a member of the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES), AACRAO International Education Services (prior to 2016), or a member of the Association of International Credential Evaluators (AICE), for equivalency to college or university transcripts in the U.S. All credentials submitted to the university are retained by the university.
5. A one-page, double-spaced letter of interest from the applicant, explaining why he/she desires to attend Texas Health and Science University.
6. Two letters of reference.
7. Proof of sufficient financial resources for educational and personal expenses.
8. Proof of English language competency. A student may be accepted into the program if he or she satisfies one of the following indicators:
  - Speaks English as his or her official or native language.
  - Graduates from a U.S.-accredited high school.
  - Transfers from or holds a degree from an institution accredited by an agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education or from an English language institution in another country.
  - TOEFL English language proficiency iBT score of 61 or higher or IELTS score of 6.0 or higher.